

Application for Senior BFA Exhibition

This application is to request participation in WVU's School of Art and Design Senior BFA Exhibition. This application must be completed and submitted to the Mesaros Gallery Manager. Please place completed forms in her mailbox located in the Art Office mailroom.

DUE: January 15th

To be eligible for inclusion in the yearly BFA Exhibition students must currently be enrolled in or have completed their Senior Projects class and be preparing to graduate. The students' primary faculty must approve all work for exhibition. When possible BFA candidates enrolled in or having completed senior studio capstone and preparing to graduate either in the Spring semester of this year or the following Fall semester (Summer or December graduates) should present their work in the exhibition that will take place at the end of the Spring semester (typically in April).
